

Trade Description

Makes, repairs, modifies custom-made prototype or special tools, dies, and fixtures

Sector: Industrial/Manufacturing

Key Skills or Attributes:

Communication skills, mechanical aptitude, attention to details, hand-eye coordination and manual dexterity. Logical reasoning, advanced knowledge of math & applied science, creativity, resourcefulness, excellent spatial ability & sequential thinking.

Other Considerations (if applicable):

Considerable physical ability and stamina due to long periods of standing

National Occupational Analysis: <http://www.red-seal.ca/tr.1d.2@-eng.jsp?tid=238>

Apprenticeable	N	Trade Regulation Exists	N
Journeyman to Apprentice Ratio	1:1	Compulsory Certified - ATQA	N
Red Seal	Y	Compulsory Certified - Other	N

Applicable Legislation or Regulatory Authority:

Apprenticeship and Trades Qualifications Act

Trade Regulation Under Review: No

Order in Council Date:

Training Pathways

Trades Qualifier Hours: 10,000 Apprenticeship Hours: NA

Training Standards: N Technical Training Available: N

Available Training Options (if applicable)
Program Name:	Provider:

Workforce Statistics

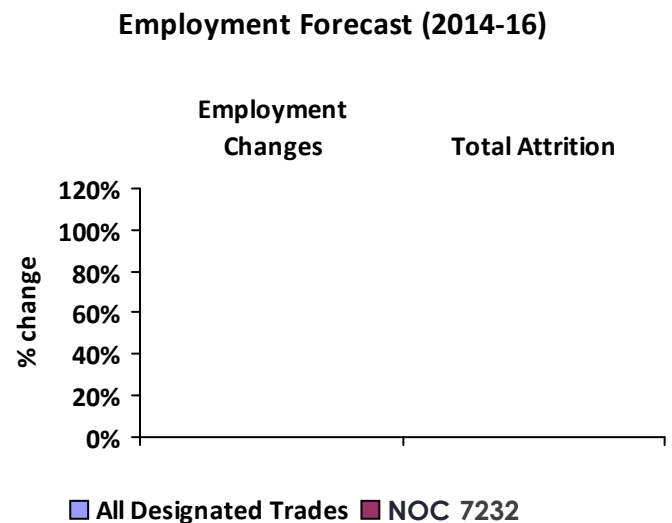

2011 NOC Title: Tool and Die Makers

2011 NOC Group: 7232

Main Industries	NAICS Code	Employment Share
1
2
3

Employment Outlook - NOC 7232

	NS	Canada	Employment Prospect Call:	Undetermi
Employment 2011:		12185	(good, fair, limited)
% Females:		3
% Self-employed:		7
% in a CMA/CA:		84
% with post-secondary credential:		76
Employment Chg, 2006-11:		4270
Median Age (years):		46
EI Claims, Avg Monthly 2014:	2	NA
Median Employment Inc. ($):		51,900
Temporary Resident Work Permits, 2014 (as of Q2 2015)		19

Total attrition=retirements+deaths

Resources

Careers Nova Scotia <http://careers.novascotia.ca/occupation/181>